

Why You Can't Miss the MicroEdge Solutions Conference

The annual MicroEdge Solutions Conference (MESC) is the place for MicroEdge clients to learn from one another and build relationships within the philanthropic and corporate giving community. It is a key gathering when it comes to helping you—and your organization—optimize the use of your MicroEdge solution to make the biggest impact possible with your programs.

At MESC, you'll not only get comprehensive, hands-on training, you'll also join hundreds of industry professionals and leading experts to grow your network and share best practices in the philanthropic and corporate giving communities. One of the great things about MESC is that you can choose from a variety of conference tracks and can even select your level of expertise, allowing you to tailor the event to your specific needs and maximize your value.

Tons of amazing opportunities

2.5 days with over 110 sessions and labs to choose from—across all expertise levels

Best practices and industry trends around effective employee engagement, facilitating collaboration, making data meaningful, system optimization, IT, streamlined workflows, and more

Networking with thought leaders and peers across industries

Targeted conference tracks tailored to your specific MicroEdge solution

One-on-one consultations with industry experts and MicroEdge product specialists

Optional pre-conference training to maximize your learning experience

Opportunity to learn about and test drive new MicroEdge solutions

“MESC provides very useful, practical ideas and hands-on experience you can implement back in the office to improve your grantmaking process.”

Jamie Amagai, The Summit Foundation

A great return on your investment

Did you know that you could quantify the value that you are receiving from an MESC education? Compared to taking regular training classes, MESC offers you extra learning benefits at a lower cost! And you are able to accomplish this in the course of a few days in one location—sunny Miami Beach, FL!

The Breakdown

- 1 hour, non-MESC, regular training class cost = $165
- Number of 1 hour sessions and labs you can attend at MESC = up to 11 (over 110 options to chose from)
- One-on-one time with Experts + Networking Opportunities = Priceless

Value of an MESC education = $1,800+

Cost of MESC registration = $1,395

By attending MESC, you are gaining hundreds of dollars worth of knowledge at no extra cost! Plus, the one-on-one expertise from industry leaders and the peer connections that you will make at MESC are priceless.

95% of attendees recommend MESC

“I especially liked the classes/seminars presented by MicroEdge employees at MESC. Their knowledge and professionalism was astounding.”

Julie Miller

BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina Foundation

“MESC is more than just another networking and training event. Many of the topical sessions are led by peers in the philanthropic space that weave their real-world experiences and application knowledge into their presentations. The wealth of knowledge gained at just one three-day annual MESC is invaluable.”

Jeffrey Hand

Rochester Area Community Foundation

Who attends the conference?

In 2013, over 430 individuals attended MESC, representing a variety of roles and organizations across the industry.
